THE INSIGHT – DSPC 2026

ABOUT

The Insight is the official online publication of the Division Schools Press Conference (DSPC) 2026. It serves as a platform for young journalists to deliver stories with depth, clarity, and credibility. Committed to responsible and ethical journalism, The Insight informs, inspires, and empowers its readers through well-crafted stories and meaningful perspectives that matter to the community.

MISSION

To produce truthful, insightful, and timely journalism that amplifies student voices and strengthens the public's access to reliable and relevant information.

VISION

To become a leading student publication recognized for integrity, journalistic excellence, and insightful storytelling—helping shape the next generation of responsible and impactful campus journalists.

CORE VALUES

Integrity – Upholding honesty, fairness, and truth in every story.

Accuracy – Ensuring all information is verified, fact-checked, and responsibly presented.

Professionalism – Practicing ethical, respectful, and accountable journalism.

Insight – Providing depth, context, and meaningful understanding.

Creativity – Embracing innovation and diverse storytelling formats.

Service – Using journalism to educate, inform, and uplift the community.

Excellence – Striving for quality output and continuous growth.

THE INSIGHT STAFF

Haley Gabrielle C. Tan

Editor-in-Chief | Layout Artist | Web Maker

Haley leads The Insight with vision and precision. As Editor-in-Chief, she oversees the publication from concept to release, ensuring clarity, responsibility, and purpose in every piece. She also handles layout and web design, transforming articles into an engaging and accessible digital experience. She believes journalism should not only inform but also be visually clear and reader-friendly.

Princess Cyriah Mangubat

News and Column Writer

Princess delivers clarity through both reporting and reflection. As a news writer, she values accuracy, balance, and responsibility. Through her columns, she presents informed perspectives that encourage deeper thinking on current issues, grounded in fairness and relevance.

Francis Ivan B. Dela Cruz

Sports Writer and Photojournalist

Francis captures the energy of sports through words and images. His articles highlight not only scores but also stories of discipline, teamwork, and passion. As a photojournalist, he freezes moments that convey action and emotion beyond captions.

Muneera Ahmed R. Al Sieh

Feature Writer

Muneera focuses on human stories and overlooked details. Through feature writing, she weaves emotion, context, and depth into narratives that invite readers to pause, reflect, and see familiar experiences through a thoughtful lens.

Nixelle Angelie C. Jalluren

Editorial Cartoonist and Writer

Nixelle blends art and opinion to spark conversation. Through editorial cartoons and concise writing, she transforms complex issues into visuals that are easy to understand yet powerful in message.
